READ THIS.
Ripley, Tenn., June 1, 1901.
Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis Mo.—Dear Sir: Having tried various remedies without satisfactory results, I was persuaded to give your "Texas Wonder" a trial. I have used one bottle, and although my case is one of long standing that baffled the skill of the best physician, yet it yielded at once to "The Texas Wonder," which I heartily recommend to all suffering from kidney and bladder troubles.

Yours truly,
W. H. BRUNTON,
Pastor Baptist Church, Ripley, Tenn.

A TEXAS WONDER.
One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. Ernest W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists.

Insure with Cushman & Hill.
D. E. Williams, Jr., of Jacksonville, was registered at the Brown House yesterday.

Order your printed stationery from The Sun office. Our work is as good as the best and our prices cheaper than the cheapest.

Miss Ethel Huddieston, a charming young lady of Texarkana, Ark., is in the city, and will be the guest of Mrs. E. M. Walton for a few weeks.

"Hello Central! Give me Carter & Anderson's market. Is that 24? Is Gandy there? Tell him to send me another pork roast like the last one. It was fine."

Rev. Jas. W. Porter will preach at the Fairbanks church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Porter is a man of fine ability and very impressive, and it is hoped a good crowd will be present to greet him.

J. R. Emerson has returned from Kirkwood, where he went on business. He states that the crops are looking fine, but rain is badly needed. The groves are looking well, and promise to pay the growers well.

J. B. Pate, the clever salesman of Ludden & Bates' Southern Music House, was at the Brown House yesterday. Mr. Pate formerly made his headquarters here, but has been transferred to Jacksonville. His numerous friends here were glad to see him again.

Superintendent Miller of the Gainesville Waterworks states that a great many improvements at the plant are anticipated, and that he proposes to begin work in a few days. These improvements will tend to give patrons of the waterworks a much better service, which it is needless to add will be appreciated. Mr. Miller is very enthusiastic in his duties, and is determined to give Gainesville the best water service in the State in proportion to population.

There was a meeting of the Gainesville Board of Trade Wednesday afternoon, and this meeting called for a resolution, which was passed to the effect that a communication be directed to the Florida Railroad Commission asking that Gainesville be placed in the seventy class rate, which will make the city a rate on a basis with the wholesale merchants of Jacksonville and Tampa. The communication was so worded that if the commission desire they may take up the matter, and if not, they can give it the "cold shoulder" by refusing to grant a hearing for the action.

W. E. Murr, the clever traveling salesman for E. V. Finlayson, pants and skirts, Charlotte, N. C., has been at the Brown House for the past two or three days. Mr. Murr is a gentleman of a most generous disposition, and has been working in the matter of assisting Uncle Hiram Burdette of South Carolina in the matter of raising money by subscription for the purpose of patenting his improved seed-dropper. Mr. Murr has succeeded in raising considerable money, which will be duly appreciated. Uncle Hiram is an old Confederate veteran and invented this seed-dropper, but not having sufficient funds to secure a patent the people throughout the South are helping him.

An Eye Opener!
Every town in Oklahoma is growing rapidly. New towns are opened every year. They thrive and soon become cities. Economic conditions require this. An investment unique in quick returns, safety and profits realized is The Oklahoma Proposition. Covington, Lucier and Greenup on a long new line of the "Frisco," are soon to be opened. Lots are now on the market. Uniform price $30 on installments. C. H. Massie, at the Brown House. Don't fail to talk with him.

Notice.

Mrs. J. E. Waugh, formerly of this city but now residing in Macon, Ga., is here on a visit to friends. She expects to make her departure for home today. The numerous friends of Mrs. Waugh were glad to welcome her to her old home.

Sheriff Fennell has returned from the West End, and brought with him Will Smith, who has just served a three months' sentence, and who is now charged with breaking and entering. Smith is now in jail and will be arraigned at the circuit court for this charge.

We have been requested to announce that Rev. J. William Jones, who will remain in this city until Monday, has consented to deliver a sermon on the life of Andrew Jackson at the Presbyterian church Sunday. Dr. Jones is a fine speaker, full of interest, and those who fail to attend will miss a fine lecture.

A. M. Pournell, the progressive merchant, is making a great many improvements at his home on East Snell street. Mr. Pournell is adding a roof to his residence, and has otherwise improved the place. It is one of the most desirable homes in the city, and the improvements will make it all the more valuable.

Chas. W. Stephens of Alachua was among the visitors to this city yesterday, and among other business was the renewal of his subscription to The Sun. Mr. Stephens is a member of the firm of the J. E. Futch Company, one of the leading mercantile establishments of that progressive town. He has a son, Frasier, attending East Florida Seminary here, and visits him frequently. Frasier is a very bright young man, standing at the last examination second high in a class of seventy. He was very highly commended by the faculty.

There was a meeting of the Gainesville Board of Trade Wednesday afternoon, and this meeting called for a resolution, which was passed to the effect that a communication be directed to the Florida Railroad Commission asking that Gainesville be placed in the seventy class rate, which will make the city a rate on a basis with the wholesale merchants of Jacksonville and Tampa.
